Minutes of first day read and adopted.

On motion of E. L. Wesson, the report on hospitals was called for and read by J. C. Parker, to-wit:

Report on Hospitals.

We, the Baptists of Mississippi, believing it to be the duty of the churches to care for the sick, have undertaken this work, first by co-operating with the Baptists of Arkansas and Tennessee in establishing the Baptist Memorial Hospital, located in Memphis.

This hospital has been in operation a little over a year, during which time it has cared for more than 2,500 patients, nine or ten thousand dollars' worth of charity work being done during this period.

The present needs of this great institution are a power plant, laundry and nurses' home, which will cost thirty or thirty-five thousand dollars.

The secretary, Brother B. F. Whitten, is making an earnest effort to raise this amount in a great Christmas offering which can be done only through the co-operation of the brethren.

We are also endeavoring to carry out the Lord's command to "heal the sick" by an effort to establish a first class hospital on a smaller scale, in our own State and in pursuance of this purpose we at present have and operate a hospital in a small frame building at Jackson, Mississippi, in which we have within the year ending September 1, 1913, cared for 223 patients, 27 of which were charity patients. Our present limited capacity necessitates our turning many patients away.

Our immediate need is a suitable building in which to do the work, such a building has been planned to cost $5,000, the foundation of which building is now being laid; and we hope that each church in the State will feel the responsibility of continuing the work until this building is finished and meet this responsibility by a liberal contribution to this cause at once.

Respectfully submitted,

J. C. Parker,

T. H. Winter,

J. H. Welch,

T. A. J. Beasley.

On motion, this report was adopted for discussion. Discussed by J. C. Parker and at the close of discussion pledges were asked for and cards for signatures were passed through the congregation.

Rev. A. V. Rowe was welcomed into the association by the moderator.

The letter from Turnpike was read by T. A. J. Beasley. Delegates, L. M. Newell, J. D. Bolen Dave Smith, Dave Smitherman Lee Todd and D. F. Gregory.

Report on missions read by E. L. Wesson. On motion, adopted for discussion, Discussed by A. V. Rowe.

Report on Missions.

Your committee on missions would report that we find it exceedingly difficult to report on three missions in one and give an adequate representation of each field of work.

As all should know, our mission work is divided into three departments—State Missions, Home Missions, and Foreign Missions. This division is not because some are interested in one mission and some in another, but for specialization and efficiency in management. It has been found that no set of men can manage everything as well as they can manage one thing, therefore the specialization in mission work and management.

Our State Mission work is under the management of our Convention Board, which is located at Jackson, Miss., with Brother A. V. Rowe as secretary. All communications about the mission work in this State should be sent directly to Rev. A. V. Rowe, Jackson, Miss.

Under the management of our State Missions, we have done a great work. Most of the churches that are now doing great things for missions and for education were once helped by the Convention Board. This board looks after the absolutely destitute places, helps the weak churches, as deemed wise, if able assists in church building, looks after the old ministers, keeps a Sunday School evangelist in the field, looks after the collection of Home and Foreign Missions in the State, and in connection with the Home Board supervises the election and support of evangelistic workers within our bounds. On account of the many other interests that are now demanding our attention, State Missions are being neglected. We make special mention of this and ask the churches to be sure to take an offering for State Missions by the first of November and send it in before the meeting of the State Convention.

Our Home Mission work is under the management of the Home Board, which is located at Atlanta, Ga., with Dr. B. D. Gray as secretary. All communications concerning Home Mission work should be sent to Dr. Gray.

The Home Board has the management of the mission work in the large cities within the bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention, also the work among foreigners that come to our land and those already settled here, and also charge of the work in Cuba; and in addition has a special department of evangelism through which it is doing a great work, especially in the large cities. It also has under its management church building work, and has assisted many churches in that line. The Home Board does its work in each state in perfect agreement with the State Mission management. This department of our work is very great and very important and needs our help.

Our Foreign Mission work is under the management of the Foreign Mission Board, which is located at Richmond, Va., with Dr. R. J. Willingham as secretary. All communications concerning Foreign Missions should be sent to the Foreign Mission Board Richmond, Va.

This board has under its management all of the mission work we are doing in foreign lands, except in Cuba, and through it we are, by the grace of God, doing a great work. We are doing mission work in Mexico, in South America, in Italy, in Africa, in China, in Japan, and the work is being greatly blessed of God. Some of the special features of our work in foreign fields today are publishing tracts, Bibles, and papers in the different languages, establishing hospitals managed by medical missionaries, that we may heal and teach, schools for the Christian education of the children of Christian parents that they may not have to be educated under heathen influences nor giped for their Christianity. This feature of our work was too long neglected, consequently we are behind other denominations in the development of the children of converted heathen.

It would be impossible to justly describe any department of our mission work in a report like this, therefore, we will not try. But that you may be informed, we earnestly request especially every pastor, also each head of a family to take The Baptist Record that you may keep posted especially about State Missions, for that is the special field of The Record, though it gives information about both Home and Foreign Missions. We also urge that each family take both The Home Field in Atlanta, Ga., and the Foreign Mission Journal, published in Richmond, Va.

Brethren, we cannot be intelligently informed and rightly appreciate the great work of our denomination without we take and read these papers, for they are our only source of full information, and we humbly say to you that we owe it to ourselves and to our families to educate them along all lines of our Lord's interests in our hands.

Respectfully submitted,

E. L. Wesson,

S. R. Knox.

Preaching hour at hand. Song "How Firm a Foundation."

Rev. P. I. Lipsey was asked to preach at the school building to the overflow crowd.

Rev. Martin L. Ball in the stand. Text, Jeremiah 32:40. Subject, "Preservation of the Saints." A great sermon to God's children.

Prayer by E. L. Wesson.

A public appeal was made for the Baptist Orphanage and contributions solicited. Amount of cash paid in, $20.00.

Adjourned for refreshments. Dismissed by A. J. Jones.

SECOND DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Called together by song.

Prayer by T. A. J. Beasley.

The report on missions again called up. E. L. Wesson, P. I. Lipséy, and T. A. J. Beasley. Report adopted.

Report on publications read by E. L. Wesson. On motion, adopted.

Report on Publications.

Brethren, instead of the regular report on publications, permit me to submit the following:

If there is one thing that Baptists are falling short today it is in reading. We are not reading the Bible as we should, neither are we reading good books as we ought, but we are falling very short on reading our current denominational literature.

We must change if we honor God by properly educating ourselves and families in the interests of the Lord's work.

Let us, therefore, take The Baptist Record, the mission journals, our Sunday School literature and such other denominational literature as we need for self-development and the education of our families.

E. L. Wesson.

Report on ministerial education and Mississippi College read by A. J. Jones.

Report on Ministerial Education.

The minister of today needs if possible, an education more than any other class of men.

This education should emanate from the heart. Ministers should take advantage of a college training as much as possible, that through this training they might be the better prepared to solve the question concerning our Lord. In the days of the early apostles it was different, they had the benefit of His presence and wisdom in meeting the great questions of that early day. We need in our lives today all of the power we can gain through education, consecration and all other means to prepare us for our work in the ministry.

MINUTES OF THE MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE.

The news of great work still comes from Mississippi College. The kind and substantial gifts from our brethren that has been given in former years yet holds and should hold a kind and loving place in our minds and hearts. We are forging from year to year closer and closer to the front lines of the enemy, and becoming more and more united in mind and heart to fight the battle for our God who through His leading we will win the battle on all the fields. We feel that we have an efficient body of men as trustees of the college. They are great men, indeed, for the work of the college would not be what it is today. The education of the head will not save a man without the love of God in the heart. It might be a greater power for the wicked one but with love in the heart we believe it helpfull in the great work of our God.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. Jones,

S. J. Owens.

On motion, the report was adopted for discussion. Discussed by A. J. Jones, P. I. Lipsey and E. L. Wesson, and adopted.

Report on Baptist Orphanage read by T. C. Hodges and T. A. J. Beasley, and on motion both reports were adopted and ordered to be printed in the minutes.

Report on Baptist Orphanage.

Religion, both natural and revealed, prescribed kindness to the poor and needy the hungry and naked, the fatherless and the widow as one of its essential virtues.

We are told (Psalms 68:5) that God is a father to the fatherless.

James tells us (Jas. 1:27) that pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this: To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep unspotted from the world.

God says (Deut. 15:11) "For the poor shall never cease out of the land, therefore, I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thy hand wide unto thy brother, thy poor and thy needy in the land."

James propounds this question to us (Jas. 2:15-16). "If a brother or sister be naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled, notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body, what does it profit you?" It is the most cruel mockery for a man who is himself living in ease and comfort to say to his shivering, starving brother when he sends him away empty-handed, "Depart in peace."

To neglect our poor orphan children is to disregard the plain teaching of God's word, and to put ourselves in a position not to be heard when we cry unto the Lord. We have for our consideration at this time the home for orphan children located at Jackson, Mississippi, and known as the Mississippi Baptist Orphanage. This is the 16th annual report of this orphanage.

It is under the direction of the Baptist denomination in Mississippi and under the management of trustees appointed by the State Convention and by the General Association, and supported by voluntary contributions from churches, from Sunday Schools, and from individuals. The children there under the present management are well cared for and trained to all manner of useful work. We commend the work which is being done for our orphan children and recommend that we at this meeting take up a collection for the orphanage.

Respectfully submitted.

T. C. Kodyes.

T. A. J. Beasley.

FACTS ABOUT THE ORPHANAGE FOR THE ASSOCIATIONS.

The Mississippi Baptist Orphanage was founded 16 years ago in response to what seems clearly to have been a divine call. Many and pleading were the cries of helpless, homeless orphan children ere this, but no denominational hand had been held out to their help until Rev. L. S. Foster, of Senatobia, brought the matter of establishing an orphanage before the denomination. Our people following the example of Mrs. Lou H. Moore, began to respond with their means, and soon the work of sheltering, feeding and clothing orphan children was commenced. In the 16 years, since the home was founded, about 600 children have received care and training for a longer or shorter time. Of these many have gone out to build homes for themselves, others to fill positions of usefulness; and at present there are about 225 to 230 all the while who must be fed and clothed and trained for usefulness. Brethren, these are our charges. Their cries are unto God's people. These are our Lord's little ones and Jesus said, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of these ye did it unto me." Our board of trustees at its last meeting, authorized the purchase of additional lands to which our larger boys are to be transferred for additional training and larger usefulness. Early in the spring a beautiful tract of 300 acres, 12 miles south of Jackson, and one mile west of Florence, was purchased at $15.00 per acre. Our superintendent and ten boys began farming operations soon after its purchase, and they report a splendid crop. We are sure that when properly developed, it will not only be self-sustaining, but will be a source of income to our Home in Jackson where our girls and smaller boys will continue to be cared for. Remember that it costs $5.00 per month to support one of these children in the orphanage, besides what is sent in in the way of clothing, etc.

We would recommend that each Sunday School or church in the association undertake the support of one of these children, contributing regularly five dollars a month. We would also urge that boxes of clothing, shoes, stockings, bed clothing of all kinds, especially sheets, and pillow cases, towels, soap, pins, needles, tablets, pencils, and good books of all kinds be made up by our churches, Sunday Schools and ladies' aid societies, and shipped to Rev. J. R. Carter, Jackson, Miss., putting the name of the church or society on box. Let our people all rally to our orphanage with our prayers and our means and God will bless us.

On motion of E. L. Wesson, the report of the committee on nominations was called for.

We, your committee, make the following report: We recommend that the association decide by vote of the body as to which shall be the next meeting place, Cherry Creek or Amaziah church.

Rev. T. A. J. Beasley to preach the sermon and A. J. Jones, alternate.

On motion of E. L. Wesson the report was adopted, and the vote taken, which fixed Amaziah church as the next place of meeting.

Report on Sunday Schools read by T. A. J. Beasley.

Report on Sunday Schools.

"Search the Scriptures, for in them ye think ye have eternal life, and they are they that testify of me."—John 5:39.

All Scripture is given by inspiration and is profitable (II Tim. 3:16). We believe that three-fourths of the studying of the Bible is brought about through the Sunday School, therefore the value of the Sunday School cannot be over-estimated.

God's Word should be taught to the young, line upon line, precept upon precept, having Jesus in every lesson.

If the Catholics can teach their doctrine and principles so as to fix them in the hearts of their children by the time they are seven years old, so that they cannot be changed, what about Baptists doing the same thing?

In order to fully appreciate what is being done in our Sunday School, we should recall the fact that 85 per cent of the people who are coming into the churches are coming through the Sunday School. This fact ought to stimulate the church to its best efforts in Sunday School work.

To that church that will not teach God's word to the young people, would not I Timothy 5:8 apply? "He that provideth not for his own hath denied the faith and is worse than an infidel."

Respectfully submitted,

H. G. West,

A. E. Harwell.

On motion of A. J. Vaughn, the report was adopted for discussion.

MINUTES OF THE

Discussed by E. L. Wesson, W. N. Clayton, T. H. Winter, C. L. Hearn, V. B. Tucker, T. C. Hodges, J. H. Dodds, W. L. Brown, W. G. Hearn, and M. C. Whittington. Report was adopted.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Association called to order. Minutes of second day read and approved.

Report on prohibition read by V. B. Tucker at the request of the writer J. M. Shadract.

Report on Prohibition.

Your committee on prohibition makes the following report: Aside from the "drink habit" being one of the greatest evils the world has ever known, the statistics of past years show the enormous cost of native distilled spirits, $500,000,000; for domestic beer, $475,000,000; for imported liquors of all kinds, $20,000,000. Total $1,055,000,000. To this enormous direct cost must be added the larger indirect cost. That is estimated at from one billion to fifteen billion dollars. The cost of the rum traffic is ten times as much as all the churches of America have given for home and foreign missions from their organization to the present time; twenty times as much as all salaries paid for public school teachers in the United States, and ten times as much as is expended for public education in all forms.

Dr. P. H. Swift once said "that the drink bill would pay for all railroads in the United States in three and one-half years, wipe out all our national state, city, county and town debts in one year, and would duplicate all bank deposits in two years."

What are we getting for this vast expenditure? The saloon and the drink habit furnish the hot-bed of crime in our country, for 75 per cent of all crime that curses our land can be traced directly or indirectly to rum.

Mr. Powderly once said, "Nine-tenths of all the misery of the working people was due to slavery of strong drink."

Every physician is familiar with a large class of alcoholic diseases. The drink habit results in loss of acute sense of feelings, and control of the body. Judgment is clouded, nerves shattered, and prompt action rendered impossible. All this results in a harvest of awful death. Such a system cannot be legalized without sin.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. Shadract.

Report on sustentation read by J. J. Hanson.

Report on Sustentation.

We beg leave to report that we find old ministers of the Gospel that have spent their days working for the Lord, who have not the necessities of life. This should appeal to every Christian heart.

God forbid that any member of the Chickasaw Association should fail to help in this cause. Let us make our contributions early so that they may be made comfortable and happy these long winter days. May we do our duty to these old servants, for they will soon be called home to ever live with the Lord in glory.

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. Hansom.

MINUTES OF THE

On motion of E. L. Wesson, the report was adopted for discussion. Discussed by A. J. Vaughn, V. B. Tucker, Martin L. Ball, and E. L. Wesson.

Report adopted

Report of the executive committee read by T. A. J. Beasley.

Report of the Executive Committee.

We, your executive committee, beg leave to report the following:

Having studied carefully the situation in our association, we find that comparatively few of our people take and read our denominational literature. We find also that the country is being flooded with pernicious and hurtful literature, the influence of which is having an exceedingly hurtful influence upon the cause of Christ.

We recommend therefore, first, that our pastors secure and distribute all the good literature possible amongst their people, and that they as occasion may demand, inform their people from the pulpit, warning them against all heretical teaching.

Second, that this association recommend some brother as colporter whose business it shall be to distribute amongst the people such literature as will build them up in the faith.

Third, we ask that our denominational papers especially our own State paper, give through their columns each week, expositions of the fundamental doctrines of the Scriptures, which we see to be sadly needed and for which our people hunger and thirst.

Respectfully submitted,

T. A. J. Beasley.

On motion adopted after being discussed by T. A. J. Beasley, E. L. Wesson, W. L. Brown, Martin L. Ball.

Report on woman's work read by V. B. Tucker at the request of the writer, Mrs. Annie Owen.

Report on Woman's Work.

Could we look deep down into the heart of each soul redeemed by the blood of Jesus, we should find that sometime in life there has been a longing to do service for the Master. The girl in her 'teens, the one emerging into young womanhood, the busy mother and the aged grandmother, all say "I am willing but what can I do?" Then if we are willing to spend and be spent for God's cause the question naturally arises through what means can we secure the help of women and girls in this great question of bringing the world to Christ?

We answer, through the W. M. U. auxiliary to Southern Baptist Convention.

As surely as each delicate tendril helps the full development of the vine, so surely do the individual members of the eleven thousand and more societies which make up the W. M. U. help the growth of the general organization.

The offerings of woman's work are usually for home uses, home missions, foreign missions, the training school and orphanage.

Home mission work is directed by the Home Mission Board, which has in its employ twenty women working at ports, in mountain schools, in mining towns, and among the Indians. The women have promised in their behalf $120,000.

For foreign work the women have been apportioned $180,000; $6,300 from Mississippi. As is generally known, this apportionment goes to help carry on the work on the different foreign fields where 273 missionaries labor.

The training school is located at Louisville, Ky., and we haven't time to tell of the great good it is doing in training young women for the Master's work. Mississippi is apportioned $270 for this work besides $110 for expenses of school which the young women have taken up.

In connection with the W. M. U. we recommend the following:

1. That we strive to increase the spiritual life of our societies by a closer and more careful study of God's word, and by more personal service.

2. That a W. M. U. be organized in each church in the association and that each society study literature gotten out by W. M. U. literature committee, which can be had by applying to State literature committee at Jackson.

MINUTES OF THE

3. That each society send a report of work done at end of each quarter.

4. That we pray earnestly that God will help us to feel our responsibility not only as individuals but as members of A. W. M. U. and that there is some work some where, be it great or small, that He wants me to do and if I leave it undone it may never be done at all, and someone may be lost through my negligence.

We are saved for service.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. L. H. Hall,

Mrs. J. M. Owen.

Resolution of Thanks.

Resolved that we, as an association, do sincerely thank the New Prospect Baptist church and the good people of this community for their kind invitation to come into their midst and for their bountiful care of us while here attending to the Lord's work.

On motion of E. L. Wesson, this resolution was unanimously adopted as the sentiment of the entire body.

Brother J. W. Fry, of California, was recognized by the moderator and welcomed to our meeting, who made a five minutes' talk which was enjoyed by all, and said he was more commonly called "Hallelujah Jack."

Preaching hour at hand. Song, "Amazing Grace."

Prayer by Rev. T. A. J. Beasley. Scripture read, part of the 16th chapter of Matthew. Text, Matthew 16:18. "The True Foundation of His Church." Another great sermon.

Prayer by Martin L. Ball.

A good talk by the moderator thanking the brethren for their presence and help.

On motion, the association was adjourned to meet with Amaziah church on Tuesday after the second Sunday in September, 1914, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The association engaged in the old custom of shaking each other's hand and bidding each other Godspeed 'till we meet again.

Prayer by E. L. Wesson.

Dismissed by Martin L. Ball.
